

- The traditional building stones of Sussex are described, illustrated, mapped and analysed
  - 160 pages, full colour, A4 landscape, soft cover, with extensive appendix, glossaries, and index of places
  - An essential guide and reference for those interested in the building stone landscape of Sussex
  - Published November 2017
- Enquiries: rogercordiner@gmail.com

---

ORDER FORM

Please mail a copy of Building Stone Atlas of Sussex to:

Name: .....

Address: .....

Post Code: ..... Email: .....

Please enclose a cheque for £35 (including p. and p.) made out to Mr. R. Cordiner and post to:

Mr R. Cordiner, 9, The Rowans, Grand Avenue, Worthing, BN11 5AT